Beginning at Judd's Bridge Road, the trail passes alongside Battle Swamp Brook for two-thirds of its length, then continues through some light forest and brush and over a stone wall to come out on Battle Swamp Road. Hikers can either double-back or turn left on Battle Swamp Road and walk on the quiet dirt road back down to Judd's Bridge Road. At the bridge, turn left and head back to the parking lot, with the Shepaug River on the right and Raven Rock Preserve on the left.

Distance 1.35 miles from Judd's Bridge Road to Battle Swamp Road and back. If Battle Swamp Road and Judd's Bridge Road are used to create a loop, the hike is approximately 2.2 miles.
